The AusIMM Award Recipients 2001

Honorary Fellowship (two awards)

👤 Dr David Mackenzie 👤

Citation: For excellent, dedicated, selfless service to the Institute and the minerals sector commanding the respect of colleagues and members over forty years, particularly in studies and publications on ore deposits and the JORC Code. For being an outstanding role model, generous with time and effort, applying acumen and integrity for the Institute and the profession in so many areas.

👤 Sir Bruce Watson 👤

Citation: In recognition of his long and distinguished career in the Minerals Industry and The Institute, in particular as President in 1992. Also for his life-long contribution to the professions, to education and research, to the arts, and to charity organisations.

The Institute Medal

👤 Mr Hugh Morgan AO 👤

Citation: For his contribution to the development and growth of the Australian Minerals Industry and his leadership in meeting the major internal and external challenges to the Industry in Australia and overseas.

President's Award

👤 Mr Don Berkman 👤

Citation: *For extraordinary contribution to the Institute publications, especially the Field Geologists Manual which is the Institute's most successful publication.*

Mineral Industry Operating Technique Award

👍 The Project Team for AMIRA Project P483/483A – Mine to Mill (1994-2001) 👍
Prof. D J McKee, Dr S Morrell, Mr A Scott, Dr W Valery & Dr S S Kanchibotla

Citation: The Award recognises the successful implementation of the “Mine to Mill” integration technique to significantly increase the productivity and cost effectiveness of open-pit mining and comminution operations.

The JKMRC team have displayed leadership promoting and facilitating the adoption of the operating technique, technical excellence in the enabling technologies and professionalism in the development and technology transfer to operations who now benefit from the technique.

Beryl Jacka Award

👍 Mr Michael Lawrence 👍

Citation: In recognition of his extraordinary and sustained contribution to The Institute and his profession over many years. Michael has served The Institute for some 35 years, including nearly 10 years as a Councillor and as President in 1999. During this time he has actively and assiduously promoted professional excellence, particularly with respect to standards of performance and ethical behaviour. Michael has made major contributions to The Institute's affairs, including inter alia the instigation of Chartered Status, the promulgation of the Valmin Code, and its membership of the Australian Council of Professions. He has also been actively engaged in the affairs of The Minerals Industry Consultants Association (MICA), including the areas of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) and definition of the Expert Witness function.

Branch Service Award

👍 Mr Trevor Ireland 👍

Citation: For meritorious leadership of the Adelaide Branch during the 1997-99 period. Trevor's Chairmanship led to a renaissance of activities including: establishment of the Mawson Student Chapter, the mentoring scheme, an active monthly newsletter, a website and coordination of many thoughtful responses to the Allen Review.

G B O'Malley Medal

👍 Mr Alex Nickoloski 👍

For his paper “Application of alternative lixivants for secondary heap leaching of gold” presented at the 7th Mill Operators Conference in October 2000.
